ABOUT

Alec is a non-profit organization rep born and raised in Shelton, Connecticut. While he first wanted to be a magician, he had far more talent as a musician so he bailed on the wand and picked up drum sticks. Alec grew up with a stutter that often made it difficult to express things, and he found singing and songwriting an excellent way to share his feelings with the world. Recently engaged, Alec is about to start a new chapter in his life, and he's hoping for the same fate professionally.

THE DETAILS

- ⦿ Alec is the youngest of three, the son of a musician who loves music just like his dad does. Growing up, Alec used music as a way to express himself when he couldn't. He grew up with a speech impediment that affected his confidence, but he regained it through singing.
- ⦿ The moment Alec knew he wanted to sing was in the car driving with his dad. His father played "Maybe I'm Amazed" by Paul McCartney, and Alec was so swept away by the song that he knew music was his life's work. His dad is a musician who is massively inspiring to Alec – he showed him all his favorite artists and showed him what it takes to make it in a cutthroat industry.
- ⦿ To make ends meet, Alec has worked countless side jobs. Whether it's driving for Uber, delivering pizza, or dressing up as the Easter Bunny, he's done everything to make ends meet.
- ⦿ In 2021, he was able to go on tour with Rod Wave, but after three shows he was sent home since the headliner no longer wanted to pay for an opener. It was a devastating blow for Alec who was trying to make a name for himself, but he has grown stronger as a person and an artist due to those early setbacks.
- ⦿ He has posted videos on YouTube and received reactions from industry power players. Alec once posted a cover of Halsey's "Without Me" that has 15 million views and 55 million streams on Spotify.
- ⦿ He just got engaged, and Alec plans on splitting the winnings between the wedding and a future home. To save money, he still lives at home but is desperate to strike out on his own.
