ABOUT

Brooklynn is an online metaphysical shop owner who credits her music inspiration to an eclectic childhood family introduction. Her great-grandparents would play Dolly Parton and Johnny Cash, and slowly but surely, Brooklynn's love for music became a passion. She moved to Atlanta to pursue a career, but after a few years at an indie label, she found the experience not what she thought it would be. Nonetheless, she never lost the fire for performing and is ready to showcase the talent that took her from Wichita to Atlanta.

THE DETAILS

- Brooklynn's mom was just 15-years-old when she had her daughter, and immediately sought out a better life for Brooklynn. They lived in Duncan, OK, where the family experienced racism. Next, they moved to Wichita, KS, where they lived with Brooklynn's great-grandparents. Musically, Brooklynn's dad would play Prince for her, and she always gravitated towards other superstars like Stevie Nicks and Lenny Kravitz. At one point, Brooklynn went to college for music and studied Music Theory as part of a vocal jazz ensemble. However, she is mostly self-taught when it comes to music.
- The biggest risk Brooklynn ever took was packing her bags at 19-years-old to move from Wichita to Atlanta. Brooklynn had nothing but a music dream and a short-term living situation, but says it was the best decision she ever made. She was even signed to an indie music label – but she ended up leaving the label quickly over creative differences. She now pays the bills by making incense which she sells online... and if she's not worn out at the end of the day, she sings when she's off the clock.
- Brooklynn's extremely competitive and says she has an extra chip on her shoulder from people overlooking her due to her size. She is tiny, and Brooklynn says most people think that such a powerful voice couldn't come from someone like her... but then she sings and they're blown away. She hasn't performed for a huge crowd yet (50 people at most), but she's yearning to have her voice heard on a larger platform.
- Brooklynn has always known she's had a gift, but is just looking for the right opportunity to let the world know. She often will record music with her fiancé of 9 years, and while he's always been encouraging, Brooklynn knows she has to take the step toward stardom on her own.
