ABOUT

Chloe is a middle school band teacher with a strong, classically-trained voice and a personality that lights up every room. Music has always been in the cards – she’s been obsessed with performing since she was a kid. Now that she’s teaching the next generation of musical superstars, Chloe hopes to give herself a shot at a solo career. She’s spent so much time helping others and she feels she deserves a chance to put her own dreams in the spotlight.

THE DETAILS

- ⦿ Growing up in a house where the stereo was always cranked up to eleven, Chloe's childhood was a non-stop jam session. With a drummer dad who rocked stages like CBGB's, and a mom who could belt out tunes like a rockstar, Chloe's musical destiny was practically written in neon lights. From playing piano since age 5 to belting out show tunes in school, her journey to becoming a vocal powerhouse was as wild as her dad's drum solos.
- ⦿ As her skills improved, Chloe began earning accolades and awards for her vocal and musical talents – from leading the middle school chorus to playing in the school band, joining the choir and more, she knew she was destined for the stage. Having attended college on a music scholarship and now with a certification in Somatic Voiceworks, Chloe teaches the next generation of middle school band kids. She loves her job and gets a kick out of showing these kids a thing or two about music.
- ⦿ Chloe's musical taste is like a mixtape on shuffle – unpredictable and totally electrifying. While she's got the chops for classical crooning, her heart belongs to the raw energy of rock and the pop hooks that get stuck in your head for days. Drawing inspiration from the likes of Grace Potter's gritty vocals and Joni Mitchell's poetic prowess, Chloe's sound is like a sonic rollercoaster. Robert Plant is another one of her eternal inspirations – she even once performed the entire Dark Side of The Moon album by Pink Floyd.
- ⦿ Winning The One & Only isn't just about taking home the trophy—it's about turning up the volume on her dreams. With every note she sings, Chloe's aiming for the stars, ready to make her mark on the world and prove that rockstars aren't born, they're made. With her winnings on the show, Chloe says a brand new Steinway Grand Piano will be her first epic purchase.
