ABOUT

Josh is a server in an Italian restaurant in Nashville, a town where he immersed himself in the music scene at a young age. His parents are both musicians who inspired him to dream big, and he has always worked incredibly hard to get what he wants. YouTube was his number one tool of education as a kid – he watched countless concerts and interviews with musicians to become a music savant. He even taught himself four different instruments using online tutorials.

THE DETAILS

- ④ Josh grew up in Nashville, the Music City, and came out of the womb singing. His mom sang in church most of her life, and his dad had a short-lived career as a Christian rapper. His grandfather gifted him a guitar when he was little, and Josh took it as a sign that music was his path.
- ④ He began to collect accolades as early as high school for his singing. Josh won Outstanding Male Vocalist and Soloist countless times.
- ④ Josh works as a server in an Italian restaurant that constantly plays jazz music. Whenever he has guests over 50, he'll sing some Sinatra or Etta James for them.
- ④ He knows four instruments: guitar, piano, drums and violin – and is completely self-taught. His family didn't have the money for lessons, so he went on YouTube and was able to provide his own music education.
- ④ When Josh isn't singing, he loves to cook for friends and family – and his secret is that he never uses any recipes. Josh loves to cook based on feel and taste, and knows it will always work out in the end.
- ④ With the money, Josh would immediately pay off his student loans and then give back to his parents. He has worked hard to find ways financially to make things work, so he'd love to provide some relief for his family one day.

Casting Note: Had done some extra work in 2018 and 2019.
